LOCAL GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION ELECTS 2019 LEADERSHIP

LIVONIA—The Conference of Western Wayne (CWW), an association of 18 chief elected local officials in Michigan’s largest county, announced today that it has selected its new 2019 leadership team.

The CWW 2019 Executive Committee is comprised of Chairperson Supervisor Robert Nix II (Northville Township), Vice-Chairperson Mayor Kerreen Conley (Belleville), Secretary Supervisor Pat Williams (Canton Township), Treasurer Mayor Byron Nolen (Inkster) and Chair Emeritus Mayor LeRoy Burcorff (Romulus), who led the CWW the last year. The committee was sworn in by the Honorable Thomas Cameron.

“I am truly grateful to serve the 18 communities in Western Wayne County that make up this organization,” said newly elected CWW Chairman, Supervisor Bob Nix (Northville Township). “Our board has met monthly for nearly four decades, to take positions on state and federal legislation and county matters. Our primary focuses include: local government, public safety, substance use prevention, transportation and community and economic development. Our region is the most populated in the County and we pride ourselves on working together to promote Western Wayne.”

The CWW is a bi-partisan group that works collectively to discuss mutual issues, share information and generally improve the quality of life for the nearly 700,000 residents who live in the region. CWW also serves as the 911 Service District for Western Wayne County.

The CWW communities are the Cities of Belleville, Dearborn, Dearborn Heights, Garden City, Inkster, Livonia, Northville, Plymouth, Romulus, Wayne and Westland, and the Townships of Canton, Huron, Northville, Plymouth, Redford, Sumpter and Van Buren.

The CWW area is 340 square miles, bordered by Washtenaw County to the west, Oakland County to the north, the City of Detroit to the east, and Monroe County to the south.

Despite the diversity of size, economic development and population density, these communities have been working together –regionally – to enhance this area of Wayne County for nearly 40 years.

“All of our 700,000 residents and 340 square miles are impacted by the decisions and laws that are made at the federal, state and county levels”, said Supervisor Nix. “It is vital that we continue to collaborate in order to create the best solutions possible to the challenges we face.”

The 18 members of CWW selected the new leadership at its board meeting on January 11 in Northville Township.
