

OVERBOOKED

Parenting is hard.
Your Book Club Shouldn't be!

Overbooked is an opportunity to meet monthly with other local parents to discuss a specific book or article that explores hot topics in parenting and the emotional wellbeing of our kids. Come to all the discussions, or come to only those that pique your interest. Read the material in depth, skim it, or just check out the cover on Amazon. No pressure! Simply join us in the spirit of growth and support!
